

Come Celebrate Persian New Year and Honor Mowlana, a Great Poetical Genius

Date: MARCH 31, 2007

Time: 3:00PM-10:00PM

Location: The Learning Garden
Venice High School
13000 Venice Blvd.,
Los Angeles, CA 90066

Please join us Saturday, March 31, 2007 to celebrate Nowruz (Persian New Year) and also to honor the International year of the great poet, Mowlana Jalaluddin Rumi. All ages are welcome! Come enjoy delicious Persian food and a full day of activities to commemorate this very important occasion.

Schedule of Activities

3:00pm-5:00pm

Tapestry making in honor of the Iranian victims of execution and violence

3:00pm-7:00pm

Inspirational Music and Open Mic with Bahar Badi', with various poets musicians, Spiritual dancers and artists including, Stephen Longfellow Fiske, Visuals/mandala universal light show by Paul Holman

7:00pm-9:00pm

Screening of director Tina Petrova's documentary "Rumi: Turning Ecstatic"

9:00-10:00pm

The Luminaries

All ages are welcome. Persian food will be available.

Donations are most welcome.

RSVP: Please RSVP to ebrown@mehr.org, or call 310.463.7930

Brought to you by the Learning Garden, Mission for Establishment of Human Rights in Iran (MEHR), and Visionary Media Inc.

Visionary Media Inc.

